MET RINGS CHANGES

Twelve borough merger plan to go ahead after pilot scheme

By Lewis Berrill

havering@yellowad.co.uk

THE controversial borough merger policing model piloted in Havering, Barking and Dagenham and Redbridge is to be introduced across London.

The policing model, dubbed Basic Command Units (BCUs), will replace the Met's 32 borough model by merging local policing in boroughs to form 12 BCUs.

The merger comes as the Met makes changes to meet their required savings target of £325million by 2021/22.

Deputy assistant commissioner Mark Simmons said: "Local policing is at the heart of what the Met does every day, and we will improve it further by offering a service that is more personal and responsive to the needs of Londoners."

"BCUs will allow us to put first victims of crime and those people who need us the most. Our new structure will also give us the resilience and consistency we need across the whole of London, so we can continue to respond to large scale incidents and meet the financial and operational challenges we are facing."

The BCU pilot in Havering, Barking and Dagenham, and Redbridge – East Area BCU – was launched in April 2017.

After East Area BCU's inception burglaries and robberies across the three boroughs rose 300 per cent in eight months, the Met revealed last month.

Police were forced to launch a special operation – Operation Mexico – in January to combat the rise.

Critics of the tri-borough policing scheme blamed the pilot for the threefold increase.

Havering councillor Graham Williamson said: "I think it is another sign that the tri-borough merger is not fit for purpose."

"If there is a systemic reason for the rise, then maybe it is the merger that should be dropped."

In September last year the Yellow Advertiser reported the police's average response time to significant incidents in Havering was six hours 24 minutes.

The Metropolitan Police's target is for 90 per cent of these calls to be reached within 60 minutes.

In October, Det Ch Supt Jason Gwillim, commander of the tri-borough unit, admitted to the Y4 it had been difficult and conceded that the scale of the fall in response time performance was not anticipated.

He said response times would be one of the force's responsibilities moving forward.

The Met will stagger the rolling-out of BCUs across London over the next 12 months.

MP pledges support for plastic fight

IAIN Duncan Smith has backed a campaign to combat the volume of plastic being dumped in our oceans.

#PassOnPlastic is led by Sky Ocean Rescue and a pledge committing to reduce single-use plastic consumption was signed by 113 MPs.

The MP for Chingford and Woodford Green signed the pledge in Westminster.

Sky Ocean Rescue's whale, Plasticus, which is made up of a quarter of a ton of plastic – the amount that enters our oceans every second – was outside Parliament.

Mr Duncan Smith said: "It is deeply worrying that there are five trillion pieces of plastic in the world's oceans, with eight million tonnes more ending up there every year.

"We all have a role to play in protecting our oceans – that's why I have signed my pledge to #PassOnPlastic and encourage others to do the same."

Launched in January 2017, Sky Ocean Rescue aims to shine a spotlight on the issues of ocean health, particularly single-use plastic, and inspire people to make small changes.

Swimmers brave chill for hospice

FUNDRAISERS: Clockwise, the Haven Hospice team, swimmers brave the cold water and Ant Middleton

TV TOUGH man Ant Middleton led the charge to raise money for Haven House Children's Hospice at a chilly charity swim.

He was among 15 participants taking part in the Woodford Green hospice's Chilly Dip at Hampstead Heath Lido.

The ultimate action hero, famous for fronting TV shows SAS: Who Dares Wins, Mutiny and Escape braved the winter chill and dipped into the lido as part of its first #Team15 challenge event, which raised almost £2,000 for the hospice, as it celebrates its 15th birthday this year.

The Team 15 campaign encourages people to take on a challenge to raise money for the hospice.

Ant got participants fired up to do a length of the pool, batting a chilly water temperature of 5 celsius.

Along with cheering on each participant Ant completed two lengths of the pool and gave everyone a signed certificate, medal and selfie.

Ant said: "The hospice provides such vital care to children and their families in the local area.

"I was really impressed with the enthusiasm shown by all those who turned up.

"The water was very cold, but everyone did exceptionally well and I'm glad to be part of Team15."

Nathan Ramsden, North London community fundraising executive at Haven House, said: "There was a wonderful atmosphere and Ant was brilliant in getting everyone fired up and into the pool. This is the second time we have staged a Chilly Dip in north London and it was great to see so many people raising funds for local life-limited children and their families.

"We hope more people will be encouraged to be part of our Team 15 and take on a challenge for Haven House in our 15th birthday year.

"Whether you're a runner, swimmer, cyclist, trekker or adrenaline-seeker, we really do have something for everyone for all fitness levels."

A GANG of gun-dealers from Romford, Southend and Dagenham has been jailed for a combined 29 and a half years for firearm offences.

The four offenders were sentenced at Maidstone Crown Court on Thursday, February 8, after pleading guilty to firearm offences.

Spencer Tapper, 27, of School Road, Dagenham, received a 15-year prison sentence for two counts of possessing a firearm and two counts of possessing ammunition.

Aymon Popo, 33, of Highfield Road, Romford, got six-and-a-half years for conspiracy to possess a firearm and ammunition with intent to endanger life.

Mahesh Chaitoo, 28, of Beresford Road, Southend, was jailed for five-and-a-half years for possession of a firearm.

Sandy Hunter, 33, of Goresbrook Road, Dagenham, got two-and-a-half years for assisting an offender.

The court heard that officers from the Metropolitan Police

Gun gang jailed for a total of 29 years

Service's Trident squad raided a property in Goresbrook Road, Dagenham, on November 16, 2016.

Inside they found a handgun containing 15 bullets and a spare 20 rounds.

Hunter was arrested and charged that day. Officers then discovered she had been in contact with Tapper on online messaging service WhatsApp, and that she was holding the gun and ammunition on his behalf.

On February 19, 2017, Tapper and Chaitoo travelled to Ramsgate, Kent, to collect a handgun. They were stopped on the M2 by police, who discovered a handgun and 42 bullets in the car boot.

Popo was linked to the investigation by subsequent enquiries, which determined he was a conduit between Tapper and Chaitoo.

Detective Inspector Tim Grinstead said: "This was a very complex investigation, with the defendants carrying and exchanging firearms across London and Kent.

"Their sentences reflect just how seriously the courts take this type of offending."

Stabbing victim named as police appeal for information

POLICE investigating the fatal stabbing of a teenager in Barking have named the victim.

The Met believes he is Hasan Ozkan, 19, of Barking. Formal identification has not yet taken place.

A post-mortem examination last week gave the cause of death as multiple stab wounds. DI Larry Smith said: "A young man appears to have been deliberately singled out by what we understand was a group intent on causing him serious injury.

"I would like to appeal to anyone who saw a group of males loitering in the area on the evening of the attack. Were you there? Did you see the suspects arrive or leave the scene?"

Police were called to reports of a stabbing in Abbey Road on Saturday, February 3, shortly after 10.10pm.

Officers and ambulance paramedics found the victim with stab wounds. He was pronounced dead at 10.55pm.

Mr Ozkan's next of kin have been informed.

No arrests have been made.

Any witnesses or anyone with information should contact police on 020 8345 3985 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

West Ham United 2-0 Watford Brian Jeeves reporting from the London Stadium

A GOAL in each half handed West Ham three priceless Premier League points in a well contested but often disjointed encounter on Saturday.

Having seen their seven-match unbeaten league sequence brought to an end at Brighton, David Moyes was looking for a positive response against a Hornets side sitting one place above them in the table.

The Scotsman was handed a boost with the return of striker Marko Arnautovic, while Michail Antonio was handed a start and new signing Patrice Evra was on the bench.

Watford arrived in east London in buoyant mood after brushing Chelsea aside with ease in the week.

Etienne Capoue's attempt was deflected over, while Troy Deeney's header from the resulting corner was beaten away by Adrian as Watford began on the front foot.

Meanwhile, Hornets stopper Orestis Karnezis, blocked with his feet from Joao Mario after Arnautovic had been crowded out.

Mindful that neither side could afford to slip up, chances came at a premium. Hernandez nodded Mario's pinpoint free-kick firmly beyond Karnezis, only for celebrations to be cut short by an assistant's flag. Then, Karnezis denied Arnautovic from point-blank range as the Hammers began to take a hold.

With their next foray forward West Ham grabbed the advantage. Hernandez made no mistake, heading home from close range after Antonio had broken clear on the left.

Chiekh Kouyate scuffed well wide while Sebastian Prodl nodded clear in the nick of time ahead of Hernandez as West Ham looked to put further daylight between the sides after the break.

Watford came close when a fizzing Jose Holebas dead-ball effort was expertly pushed away by Adrian.

Proceedings had become scruffy with passes drifting astray. Only a horribly off-target header from Richarlison thwarted Watford as they continued to probe.

But before they could make any headway, West Ham doubled their lead. Holebas' clearance deflected off Cresswell, presenting Arnautovic with the simplest of chances.

After the game, Moyes said: "I just said in there that you have to remember, they just beat Chelsea

4-1 in midweek. People say we are close to the bottom bed, and we totally realise that, but we are also pretty close to 9th, 10th 11th too so we have to keep aiming that way."

West Ham have only lost one of their eight top-flight home matches since Moyes took charge and he was hopeful that they were starting to turn their much-maligned home into a fortress.

"I hope that's the case. We have got goals in us, we needed to stop conceding them and we have done a job to make us harder to play against."

"We are getting our injured players back and they are making an impact."

Moyes was pleased with the performance of Arnautovic, but insisted he was keeping the Austrian's feet firmly on the ground.

"He's getting no praise, that's for sure. He's getting told that he has got to keep at it and he is going to be pushed all the way."

"We are telling him he is doing well, but we're not letting him off the hook."

"He only trained three days this week to be fair, but you can see the impact he has for us. He's got power, pace, quality on the ball and he's doing a really good job for us."

Moyes didn't believe starting Arnautovic was a risk, despite the player only returning to training early in the week. "If you get him in the right frame of mind he is very difficult to play against."

Frustrated Watford chief Javi Gracia said: "The last match showed us how we can get points by running, fighting, and today we didn't do it enough."

West Ham remain in 12th place, with a five-point buffer from the drop zone. They return to Premier League action on Saturday, February 24 when they take on Liverpool at Anfield (3pm).

Watford: Orestis Karnezis, Daryl Janmaat, Sebastian Prodl, Adrian Mariappa, Gerard Deulofeu (Dodi Lukebakio 74'), Troy Deeney (capt), Richarlison (Andre Gray 82'), Abdoulaye Doucoure, Marvin Zeegelaar (Roberto Pereyra 56'), Jose Holebas, Etienne Capoue Subs not used: Daniel Bachmann, Didier Ndong, Andre Gray, Andre Carrillo, Joy Makena

Resurgent Blues get the better of league leaders Wigan

Southend United 3 Wigan Athletic 1 From Rowland Lyons at Roots Hall

CHRIS Powell becomes the first permanent Southend boss to mastermind a hat-trick of opening wins, as his side overturned the form books to trounce the league leaders on Saturday.

Michael Turner, Marc-Antoine Fortune and Michael Lightly were on target as the Blues' climb up the table continued. Sub James Vaughan nodded home the Latics' consolation.

The Blues enjoyed a dream start when the unmarked Turner arrived at the back post to nod home McLaughlin's third minute free-kick.

The visitors didn't muster a reply until 17 minutes, but Nick Powell scuffed his close range shot wide.

Simon Cox let fly two minutes later and was only inches away from doubling the hosts' lead.

Wigan then began to play some of the football that has seen them take the division by storm, but Mark Oxley was equal to Powell's 31st minute free-kick, before the recalled Anton Ferdinand did well to block Michael Jacobs' 20-yarder.

Having ridden the storm, a fine move started down the right on 36 minutes by Jason Demetriou, which saw Dru Yearwood find Michael Lightly, who in turn fed Cox.

Unselfishly, the striker played in Fortune, who beat Christian Walton with an angled drive.

Cox should have put the game out of reach before the interval, but could only volley over Ben Coker's cross.

Ferdinand went close on 52 minutes, forcing Dan Burn into a last-ditch clearance, before Lightly missed from a Cox slide-rule pass.

But Wigan hit back and Vaughan served warning with a header that only just flew over the bar.

For the first time Southend switched off and allowing Nathan Byrne to cross, Vaughan glanced home on 66 minutes.

Wigan appeared to have the upper hand and barely three minutes later Burn should have levelled, but his towering header from a Powell corner was well wide.

Athletic had a 73rd minute penalty claim waved aside when Turner appeared to fell Powell a yard inside the area. Will Grigg then went too close for comfort, with a header nine minutes from time.

However, barely two minutes later, after another spell of pressure, Lightly rammed home a short Cox pass.

Inspired, Southend ended on the front foot – sub, Shayon Harrison, inches away from grabbing a debut goal with a shot that only just dribbled wide of Walton's far post.

Deep into stoppage time Wigan had another penalty claim denied after Demetriou appeared to pull back Powell, who was about to shoot.

A satisfied Powell said: "Wigan have got some firepower, but, we stood up to it."

"It was a very satisfying 90 minutes today. We are slowly moving forward."

Southend: Mark Oxley, Jason Demetriou, Anton Ferdinand, Michael Turner, Ben Coker (capt), Dru Yearwood, Michael Timlin, Stephen McLaughlin, Michael Lightly (Jermaine McLaughlin 90'), Simon Cox (Shayon Harrison 85'), Marc-Antoine Fortune (Freddie Ladapo 70'), Subs (not used): Nathan Bishop, Michael Klass, Harry Kyprianos, Elvis Womono

Non-league round-up

Clarets late show sinks Dartford

By Brian Jeeves

TAYLOR Miles scored directly from a corner four minutes into stoppage time as Chelmsford City completed an incredible National League South comeback to sink Dartford 2-1 at Princes Park.

It was looking like a frustrating afternoon for Rod Stringer's men who trailed to a Ryan Hayes goal shortly after the half-hour mark.

However, Kudus Oyenuga looked to have salvaged a point with an 86th-minute penalty before Miles sent the travelling City contingent wild in the final seconds.

Elsewhere in the South section, East Thurrock United played out a goalless draw with Eastbourne Borough at Rookery Hill. But there were frustrating defeats for Concord Rangers, by a single goal at Weston-Super-Mare, and Braintree Town who went down 2-0 against Bath City at Cressing Road.

In the National League's top division, Dan Holman rescued a valuable point for Leyton Orient against Tranmere Rovers at Brisbane Road. The former Colchester United striker found the net early in the second period after Ritchie Sutton had given the Birkenhead outfit the lead on the stroke of half-time.

But it was another frustrating afternoon for Dagenham & Redbridge, who went down 2-0 against title-chasing Aldershot Town at Victoria Road. Jim Kellerman and Scott Rendell with the Shots' goals early in each half.

Bostik League Premier Division leaders Billericay Town had a tough afternoon at Metropolitan Police. But goals from Jake Robinson and Ricky Modeste ensured the Blues a share of the spoils from a zesty encounter.

But it was a disappointing day for Thurrock, who lost 2-0 at Harrow Borough.

George Purcell bagged a brace as Bostik North leaders, AFC Hornchurch saw off Haringey Borough 2-1 at Bridge Avenue – Lionel Stone with a late reply for the plucky visitors.

Charlee Hughes scored just after the hour mark as Bowers & Pitsea continued their own promotion push with a 1-0 success at Waltham Abbey.

Meanwhile, Matthew Price hit a hat-trick, while Harrison Chatting, Juan Luque and Ryan Henshaw were on target as Heybridge Swifts thrashed Ware 6-1.

Ryan Cosson struck early as Aveley won 1-0 at Potters Bar Town, while Grays Athletic and Maldon & Tiptree played out a 2-2 draw at Parkside. Stanley Muguo and Tommy Wade salvaging a point for the hosts after James Shepherd and Joe Ellul had earlier given the Jammers a two-goal advantage.

Tilbury played out a goalless draw with AFC Sudbury while Romford had a frustrating afternoon, going down 2-0 to Dereham Town at Ship Lane.

In the Essex Senior League, leaders Redbridge and fellow promotion hopefuls Basildon United were left frustrated when their clash at the Oaks Stadium fell foul to a waterlogged pitch.

It was a similar story for Hullbridge Sports' match with West Essex and Barking's clash with Wadham Lodge. Great Wakering Rovers made ground on the leaders with a 1-0 win over Takeley at Burroughs Park. Southend Manor were also 3-2 winners on the road against Sporting Bengal United. Woodford Town (2017) played out an exciting 2-2 draw with Burnham Ramblers, while Waltham Forest's match with FC Romania ended 1-1.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Catholic United win their Premier League derby at Leigh Ramblers 3-0. White Ensign were also 3-0 winners, Bishop's Stortford Swifts the fall guys at the Len Forge Centre.

In Division One, Great Baddow were 3-2 winners at Shenfield AFC, while Old Southendian and Runwell Sports played out a 2-2 draw at Garon Park.

In the Essex Junior Cup quarter-final, Old Southendian Reserves made progress with a narrow 2-1 success at Academy Soccer.
